STUDENT LIFE CINEMA
HOMEMADE HORROR SHORT FILM CONTEST 2015

In celebration of Halloween and horror films, the SLC Midnight chairs want you to create your own short horror film. The contest will begin September 19, 2015 and end at 11:59PM on October 9, 2015. All entries must be submitted by the end date for consideration. 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place winners will be announced at the screening. The winners will get their short film shown before the midnight screening of The Blair Witch Project on October 16, 2015.

Rules and Guidelines:

• You must be an FSU student to participate.
• Your film must not be longer than 5 minutes (not including credits).
• You may not use copyrighted music. Films with copyrighted music will not be eligible.
• Your story/script should be your original work. No plagiarism.
• Get signed permission from your actor(s) for their voice and likeness to be shown in a public setting.
• Get signed permission from your location(s) for filming in/on their premises or property.
• You may use any camera you like (i.e. camera phone, laptop, video camera, etc.)
• Upload your finished film to Youtube or Vimeo and, using your FSU email only, send the video link to SLCMidnight@admin.fsu.edu
• Include in the subject line: SLC Midnight Short Contest 2015.
• In the body of the email include: your link, the name of your short, runtime, and your first and last name.
• Each film will be judged by Richard & Cassidy, the Midnight and Vice Midnight chairs, based on creativity and entertainment value.

Prizes will be awarded to the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place winners and are TBD. We will keep you updated. We can also provide PDF copies of permission forms for actors, locations, or original music.
